

It should be mandated that consumers be allowed to call any VRS provider of their choice and not be restricted to just one because it was federal money that actually purchased the units . A waiting time of more than 5 minutes is not satisfactory as hearing people get a dial tone immediately , we should be equal. Sincerely,
Leonard Hull